Favourite thing is to be in the sun on the beach with a book and a beer. Favourite beaches have been City beaches in Barcelona and Copenhagen – means when its dark and cooler can find amazing places to eat.

Recently move to bristol so currently exploring this city which has been fun so far. Like to go to the gym and this year I started running (not a big fan but do it anyway).

My girlfriend is Danish so I've been learning Danish on duolingo and am currently on a 262 day in a row streak. Go to dish to make is paella My fav dish to eat is mussels in a white wine sauce with some crust bread and chips. Favourite tv show is The office US. Favourite film is Django unchained.

Dream is by the time I'm 50 to have a little cafe in the south of France which I live above and have a pool out back. Wake up and open at 7am close by half 1 and relax in the sunshine for the rest of the day with a little espresso cup.
